

This weekend 3 Rush Pikes Peak coaches will be heading to Paris, France for some coaching education and European soccer games. Nik Penn (DOC Junior Girls), Brian Lux (DOC Youth Girls) and Erich Bartelt (DOC Goalkeeping) will meet up at Paris St. Germain of the French first division to take in some games and sessions. They will also visit Lille (French first division) and Clare-Fontaine, the French National Team training center. While in France, they will attend the PSG-Porto and Lille-Valencia Champions League games. They will also have a chance to see Rush alumna Lindsay Horan play for her first division women's team of PSG. After 8 days in Paris, the group will head to Amsterdam for an International Football Expo. We wish these three a safe journey and take lots of pictures for us back here! Au revoir!

For more information on this trip, please click here.